THE GOOD MAN'S GAIN.

A Late Chapter from (Modern) Holy Writ.

1.—It came to pass that a goodly man and poor came up from the land of a powerful people named Methy Dists, of Sirra Cuse, and he sat himself upon a seat among the tents of the ungodly in the Philistine camp of Psauldalk;

2.—And it came to pass that the goodly man and poor felt sorely grieved in the bottom of his heart at the wickedness of the Philistines, and he lifted up his voice in public places against these things.

3.—But the Philistines were wealthy and proud, and would not give unto him of their substance because of his scoffing and railing; and when reproached thereof and commanded in the name of the Lord to give up, they were still proud and obstinate, and said in their native tongue, not by a damnsite.

4.—Whereat the pilgrim grew weary of wrestling with the Philistines, and he became sorely troubled in spirit; moreover, he waxed exceeding hungry; and when the plate on which he was wont to have the sinful cast he sought to have the good man's stomach.

5.—And it came to pass that hunger and cold drove him into the ways of the ungodly, so much so that he did cause to be placed burning words on parchment telling of the sins and wickedness of the Philistines, and did sell the same for gold and silver, and did receive much substance.

6.—And his gains did make him proud and did strengthen his limbs, and on the Lord's day he lifted up his voice like unto the fogs of his native land, and did smite the Philistines with the jawbone of an ass, like unto Sampson.

7.—And behold! he did engage in the trafficking of trinkets, and trifles, and those things which lend adornment to the house, yea, even the Holy Scriptures. And he did call upon some few who followed him to yield up of their treasures, and the shekels (which to this people were known as nickels) came forth abundantly, yea, in great profusion.

8.—But it came to pass that when a certain time had gone, the people, even those who had risked of their substance, demanded of the good man whereof they had followed his guidance, whereunto the proceeds had gone. And he was sorely perplexed and he spake not at all. But he mounted his ass, whose name was Ignem, and he moved out of the rabble.

9.—And when it became known that of the sums which he had gathered together, namely, the sum of sixty and five thousand dollars, there was little, yea, not more than the tenth part thereof remaining, the people who had trusted him became exceeding angry, and when they said, Where is our treasure? he replied "Ha, ha!"

A NOTED BUT UNFITTED WOMAN.

(From the Boston Globe)

Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., who above all other human beings may be truthfully called the "Dear Friend of Women."

As some of her correspondents love to call her, she is zealously devoted to her work, which is the outcome of a life study, and is obliged to keep six lady assistants, to help her answer the large correspondence which daily pours in upon her, each bearing its special burden of suffering, or joy at release from it. Her Vegetable Compound is a medicine for good and not evil purposes. I have personally investigated it and am satisfied of the truth of this.

On account of its proven merits, it is recommended and prescribed by the best physicians in the country. One says: "It works like a charm and saves much pain. It will cure entirely the worst form of falling of the uterus, Leucorrhoea, irregular and painful menstruation, all ovarian troubles, inflammation and ulceration, Floodings, all displacements and the consequent spinal weakness, and is especially adapted to the change of life."

It permeates every portion of the system, and gives new life and vigor. It removes faintness, flabbiness, destroys all craving for stimulants, and relieves weakness of the stomach. It cures Bloating, Headache, Nervous Prostration, General Debility, Sleeplessness, Depression and Indigestion. That feeling of bearing down, causing pain, weight and backache, is always permanently cured by its use. It will at all times, and under all circumstances, act in harmony with the law that governs the female system.

Bottle only $1.00 per bottle or six for $5.00, and is sold by druggists. Any advice required as to special cases, and the names of many who have been restored to perfect health by the use of the Vegetable Compound, can be obtained by addressing Mrs. P., with stamp for reply, at her home in Lynn, Mass.

For Kidney Complaint of either sex this compound is unsurpassed as abundant testimonials show.

"Mrs. Pinkham's Liver Pills," a special writer, "are the best in the world for the cure of Constipation, Biliousness and Torpidity of the Liver. Her Blood Purifier works wonders in its special line and bids fair to equal the Compound in its popularity."

Altmatt respect her as an Angel of Mercy whose sole ambition is to do good to others.

Philadelphia, Pa. Mrs. A. M. D.
